National Dislocated Worker Grant (DWG) Summary

State Period of Performance Grant Award Amount Common registration and case management across at least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service sacross at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career conseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Project Description Project Description Project Description Grantee Contact Alternate Options for States Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace fendlay @maryland.gov 4	Duoinet True	Poomployment Cystem Intern	ration (DCI)
Period of Performance Grant Award Amount St., 100,000 Common registration and case management across at least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Project Description Project Description Project Description Project Description on registration function will all allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between U1 and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace, fendlay@maryland.gov	Project Type	Reemployment System Integration (RSI)
Grant Award Amount Common registration and case management across at least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace, fendlay@maryland.gov
Common registration and case management across at least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Morkforce Connect Plan to use Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace, fendlay@maryland.gov			50, 2018
Common registration and case management across at least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line service across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Morkforce Connect Plan to use Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov	Grant Award Amount	$1,100,000
case management across at least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counselling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to use No Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov			✓ Where Applicable
I least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay @maryland.gov		Common registration and least the DW, ES, and UI programs Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		case management across at	✓ Implementation of robust on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use No Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Grantee Contact		least the DW, ES, and UI	• on-line service delivery hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		programs hubs that integrate information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Plan to use Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grantee Contact Grantee Contact		Implementation of robust information and on-line services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers Alternate Options for States Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Workforce Connect For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Waryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay @maryland.gov		_
Services across at least the DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to use No Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		_
Core Project Elements DW, ES, and the UI programs Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use No Plan to use No Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov			✓
Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Data integration strategies that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Workforce Connect Plan to use Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov	Core Project Elements that support the ability of front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Waryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		· · front-line staff, including career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov Career counselors, to better connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov connect dislocated workers to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov to the services they need to get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov get jobs in demand and expand the capacity to provide career counseling to more customers For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov			$ \checkmark $
Alternate Options for States For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Alternate Options for States For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Alternate Options for States For states with existing integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Alternate Options for States Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Alternate Options for States integrated systems, the proposal includes enhancing existing system Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov	Alternate Options for States
Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Workforce Connect Plan to use Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		•
Plan to investigate Maryland will use these funds for the purchase of the Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov	Workforce Connect		Yes or No
Project Description Unemployment services and Unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		Plan to use	No
Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration and case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		Plan to investigate Project Description And case management system for use across the State's dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		Maryland will use these funds	for the purchase of the dislocated worker, employment services and unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		Reemployment Exchange (REX), an integrated registration
Project Description unemployment insurance programs. Maryland's purchase of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
of the REX module will allow the State to establish a single web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov			dislocated worker, employment services and web-based common intake portal for both workforce registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov	Project Description registration and filing of unemployment claims. The common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov common registration function will allow for seamless transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		· transition between UI and workforce platforms. Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Grantee Contact Grace Fendlay Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Grantee Contact Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov
Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov		·
Grace.fendlay@maryland.gov	Grantee Contact
410-767-0044
•		410-707-0044			